LOUISVILLE – If you're tired of yard signs and campaign talking points, it's time to dig deeper for the real election story of 2014. Drama by George's new touring play, Kylie for President, equips elementary students to make wise choices through the hilarious campaign stunts and zany fun of a school election.

Fifth grader Kylie Angel is determined to be Lincoln Elementary's next school president. Unfortunately, so is her archenemy, Devin Hartless . . . and Devin is ready to lie and cheat to get there. Kylie tries hard to do the right thing, but Devin's dirty tricks are winning him votes. Will Kylie keep her campaign on the straight and narrow? Will her friend Kenny help Kylie get elected, or give in to peer pressure and help Devin instead? Will Lincoln Elementary School ever be the same? Kylie for President equips students to make responsible, caring, helpful, and courageous choices, even in the face of peer pressure.

Kylie and her friends have already scheduled 20 performances for over 5000 Kentuckiana students this year. The production, which tours primarily to Kentucky and Indiana elementary schools, features Janelle-Renee Hunnicutt as Kylie Angel, Ed Rosenberg as Kenny Waffelstein/ Mr. Pointer, and George Halitzka as Devin Hartless.
